The Malthouse is a newly refurbished cultural development centre in Barking, set in the heart of an ambitious creative regeneration scheme for East London. Situated on the River Roding, there are excellent transport links being near the A13 and A406 North Circular junction and Barking Station, served by both mainline and underground trains.

Featuring exceptional natural light and river views, Arc's spaces for hire at The Malthouse Studios offer a unique environment for rehearsing, meeting or training. Our rooms are flexible and airy and provide the ideal space for a range of events, from corporate receptions and public sector conferences, through to artist exhibitions, photographic shoots and classes for young people.

Our two studios are fitted with Harlequin Dance Floors and have the added benefit of breakout spaces. Our meeting room can host a variety of small seating arrangements, from boardroom through to screening. Arc's spaces also benefit from ample onsite parking, wi-fi broadband and a fully accessible lift.
